Intro

It's been a long time since the original document came out. We wanted to improve it by making it shorter, more comprehensible, and adding some more recent and more personal items. We also wanted to explain our experiences with the community and the aftermath of the original release here, mostly because we aren't anonymous anymore. Because of this the document will consist of 2 parts: the evidence and our story. The evidence will only contain objective things making it much shorter compared to the last rendition.

This time it's primarily Jamey and Freaky assembling this document, and some others we do want to keep anonymous helping out behind the scenes. If you want to ask questions and complain, go to Jamey and Freaky, we take full responsibility for this document and actually want to talk like we've tried to since the release of the original. Our usernames on Twitter/X are @J_Vampyre_ and @oO_Freaky_Oo, feel free to reach out there.
Our stories make up the majority of the document, but also contain screenshots and talk about the community. This part making up the majority of the document does not imply we deem ourselves more important than the facts, it just needs more explaining than the objective evidence.

Pixelkitty is not associated with this rendition, but they were with the original version. They came up with making a document and spreading it anonymously, but in the end when we were found out they backed down and broke their promise to stick through, outing us in the process. We'll talk more about that in the second half.

CONTENT WARNINGS
This document includes topics such as

- Loli and other NSFW (censored)
- Slurs (f-slur, n-word, etc)
- Anti-semitism and nazi-symbolism
- Racist stereotypes
- Grooming
- Stalking
- Death threats
- Talk about mental illness and suicide

Chapters containing specific content have been labelled accordingly, except Other noteworthy things and Part 2: epilogue. These chapters contain talks about stalking, mention of grooming and pedophilia (but no direct evidence of, only links to evidence), death threats, and talk about mental illness and suicide.

In this version evidence won't be censored when it comes to names and sensitive content, we however will censor any pornographic content. Some screenshots have been cropped to only leave crucial parts. This has been done sparingly and only in favour of regular server members and readability. We understand screenshots can't show everything, so feel free to search for these things in the server yourself.

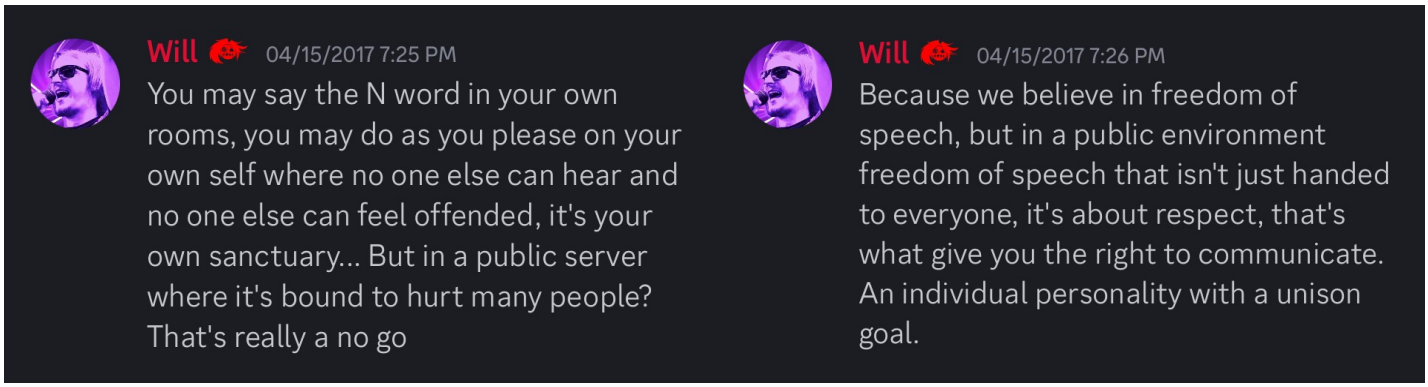
DAGames @DAGamesOfficial · Jun 10, 2018
I didn't say the "er" word, I said the "a" word. To most, it's a HUGE difference, to some it isn't. It's as controversial word, but controversy doesn't really go anywhere other than just being a part of existence, so there's no good OR bad in it honestly haha.



Will 04/15/2017 7:25 PM
You may say the N word in your own rooms, you may do as you please on your own self where no one else can hear and no one else can feel offended, it's your own sanctuary... But in a public server where it's bound to hurt many people? That's really a no go
Will 04/15/2017 7:26 PM
Because we believe in freedom of speech, but in a public environment freedom of speech that isn't just handed to everyone, it's about respect, that's what give you the right to communicate. An individual personality with a unison goal.

- Will using racism as a joke

[Analog Not Included! (Playstation Classic Parody)] uses Asian stereotypes

[Vine in DiamondArmada tweet] uses racism as a concept as a joke

- Will using the f-word in a harmful and non-reclaiming manner (though Will is bisexual himself)

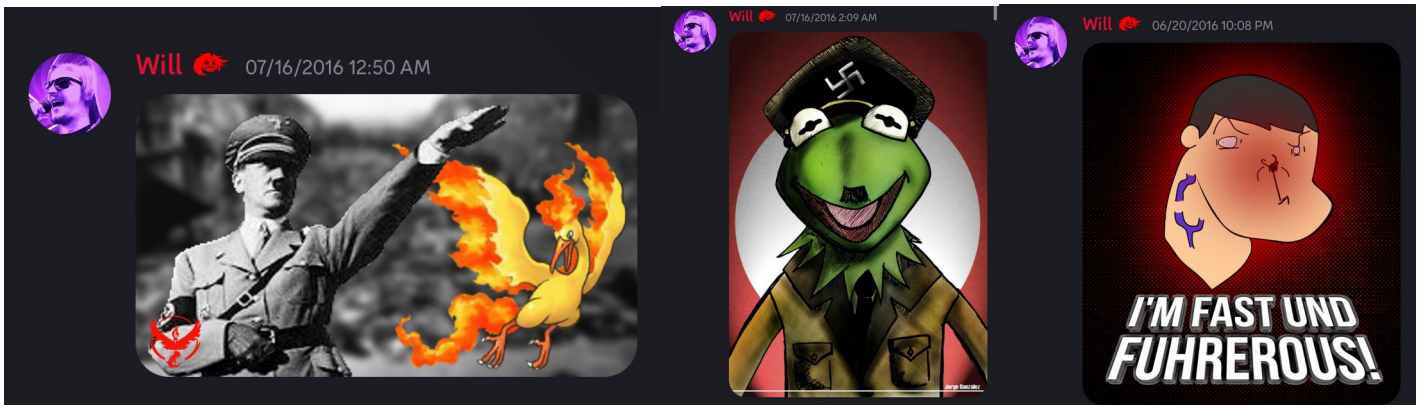
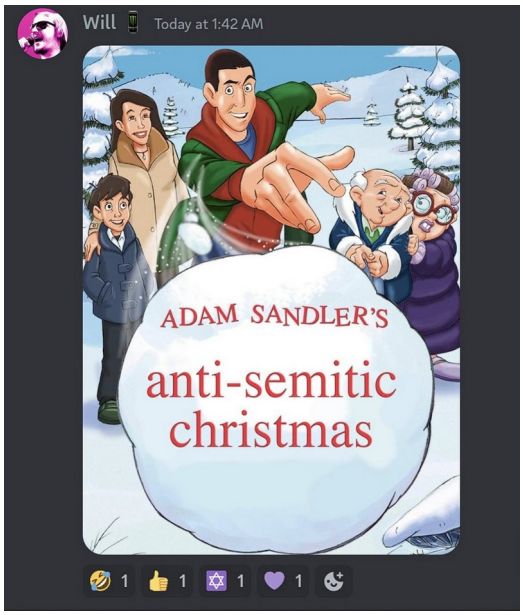
- Casual usage of nazi symbolism in a logo and jokes/memes



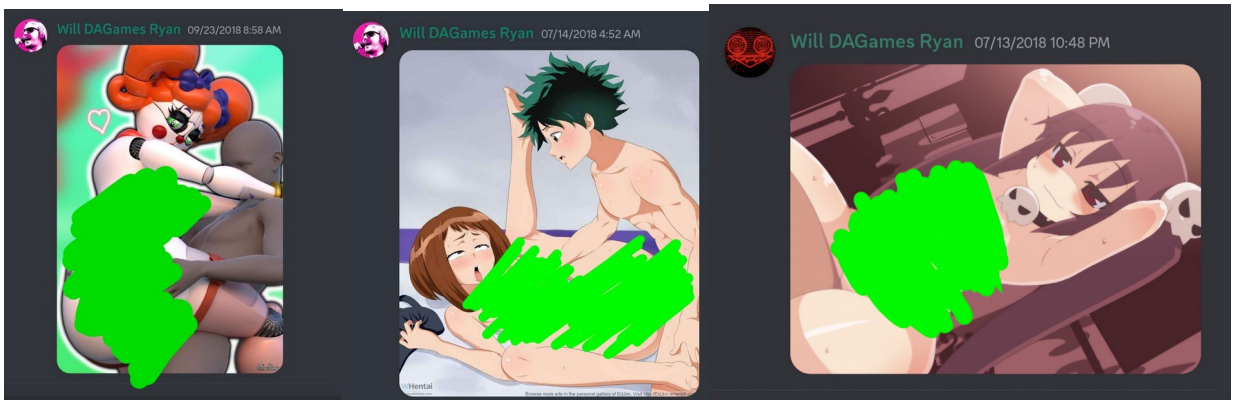
- Antisemitism is the joke (screenshot taken on september 5th 2023 in Lala's server)



Proof of most of these actually being posted from Will and Chris’ accounts can be found here.

NSFW/loli

- Loli/NSFW art of minor/teen-presenting characters and/or characters that are canonically minors, either through confirmed age (i.e. Miku is 16) or because of important character points (i.e Circus baby being possessed by a child). Video proof that it's actually Will here.



All screenshots are from AficionadosChris' server, but most have been deleted upon the release of the original document. Note the difference in page counts in these searches, the first having been taken before the doc came out while searching for evidence, and the second after:

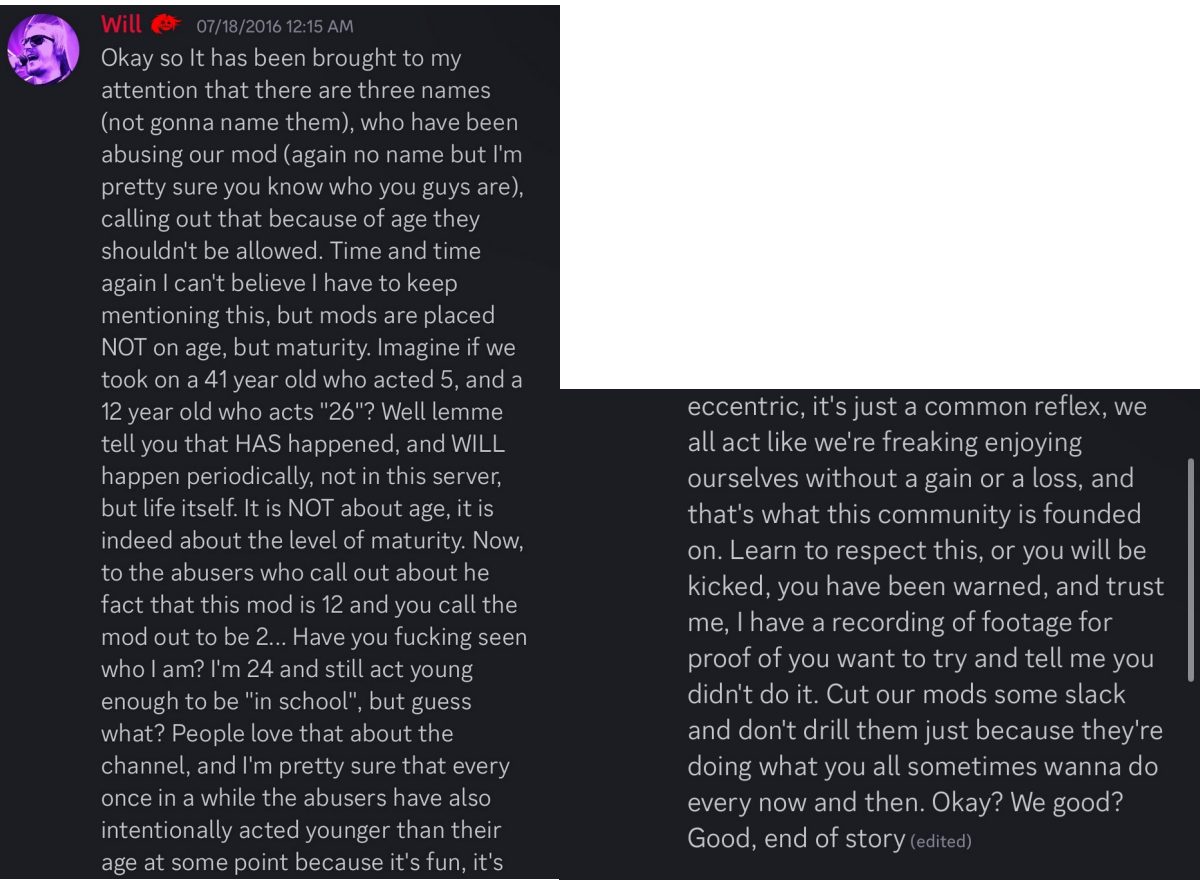
Other noteworthy things

- 11 year old was a mod, gets called mature by Will



Will 07/18/2016 12:15 AM
Okay so It has been brought to my attention that there are three names (not gonna name them), who have been abusing our mod (again no name but I'm pretty sure you know who you guys are), calling out that because of age they shouldn't be allowed. Time and time again I can't believe I have to keep mentioning this, but mods are placed NOT on age, but maturity. Imagine if we took on a 41 year old who acted 5, and a 12 year old who acts "26"? Well lemme tell you that HAS happened, and WILL happen periodically, not in this server, but life itself. It is NOT about age, it is indeed about the level of maturity. Now, to the abusers who call out about he fact that this mod is 12 and you call the mod out to be 2... Have you fucking seen who I am? I'm 24 and still act young enough to be "in school", but guess what? People love that about the channel, and I'm pretty sure that every once in a while the abusers have also intentionally acted younger than their age at some point because it's fun, it's eccentric, it's just a common reflex, we all act like we're freaking enjoying ourselves without a gain or a loss, and that's what this community is founded on. Learn to respect this, or you will be kicked, you have been warned, and trust me, I have a recording of footage for proof of you want to try and tell me you didn't do it. Cut our mods some slack and don't drill them just because they're doing what you all sometimes wanna do every now and then. Okay? We good? Good, end of story (edited)

What happened in America with George Floyd was absolutely uncalled for.
But what the hell did Target do to deserve what it got? It's kinda like you HAD a point to begin with, and then ruined your entire movement by adding more crime to a crime while proactively talking against crime.

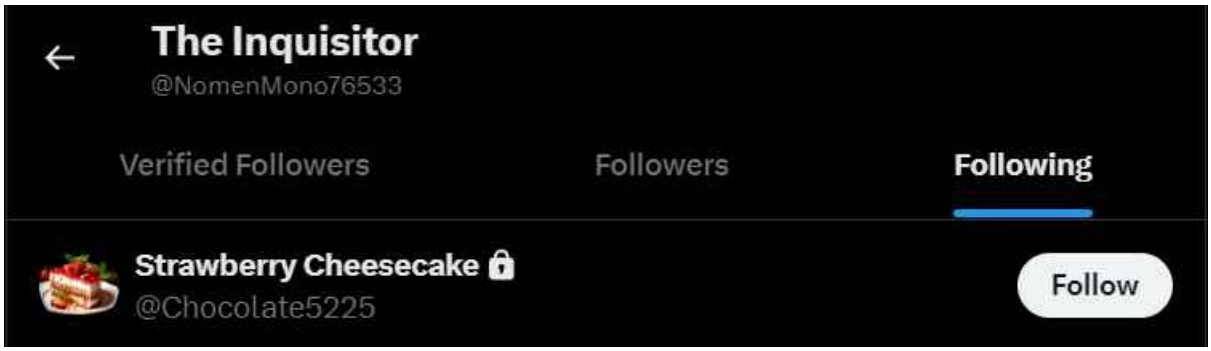
○ @NomenMono76533 is an account that frequently replies to our posts about Will and DAGames, mostly to Jamey. We don't know who runs it, but during the period @Chocolate5225 was still up and private, they were seemingly mutuals. This could mean that Lala might be running both, but this is speculation.



- Pedophiles and groomers within the community never getting banned/victims not getting enough recognition.
  - Link to a thread exposing Markeidian, a groomer that used to be in the DA server, getting deleted by mods, and Will calling it “feeding attention to negative things” in a vent (screenshot taken on november 9th 2022).

And on a personal note (with this in mind) I would like to vent a little.
I've tried to promote this community as well as I can, and while I am powerless, I can't help but talk about this habit a lot of people have gotten into by feeding attention to negative people and constantly finding negative spaces. I've spent a good long time trying to promote the idea of ignoring negative people and not talking about them / bringing them up in community spaces, because the less power they have, the better. But lately it's become an addiction to point out bad people and give them a spotlight.
Now, in your head I'm betting you think "The more we bring these people up, the safer we can make these spaces". Trust me when I say after all the extensive research and spectating I've done, it does nothing but make our community closed off, and gives it much more of an impression that we are a bad space. It actually keeps people away from seeing us, pushes people out, and I think that's the last thing anybody would like to do.
people out, and I think that's the last thing anybody would like to do.
I want it known that while i do not condone bad people, I also dont condone gatekeeping, addictive doom scrolling, white knighting or renegades such as SCOUTING bad people and giving them spotlights. I implore you, if you care about this community, and you care about the channels appearance, you will do your best to avoid bringing these kinds of people up on Twitter, in the fan server, on YouTube, all publicly available social media outlets. That being said if you know a friend who is suffering, be there for them in private and please keep it private. The less we bring attention to this kind of thing in the public eye, especially our community, the better and more peaceful we will end up showcasing. (edited)

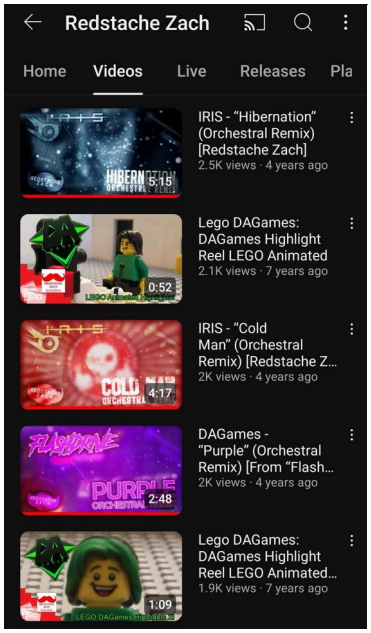
  - Redstache Zach (creator of Lego DAGames and several covers) never got talked about by the team despite him getting arrested for possession of child pornography in 2020 being a commonly known fact within the community (full arrest report can be found here). He should be out of prison later this year.



Part 2: personal stories

Jamey’s story

Hi, this is Jamey writing. Last november I posted a thread about my part in this which I still think portrays my part in the original release very well. You can read it here. Right now I primarily want to talk about what happened after, about the community's attitude towards me through the years (yes, even before the original document) and how I feel about all of that.

The first release was messy, far worse than I had expected. I don't want to go into full detail because I want to keep this part short, but you should know that our trust was broken more than once, both by people who worked on the document and by people I used to be friends with. I took most of the beating, primarily because I was a prominent figure in the community, but also because Freaky didn't have internet (more about that in her part) and because Pixelkitty left us to clean up the mess. People were upset because I did this, because I made art (e.g Will’s BFTFT concert outfit) and was close to Will allegedly just to 'cancel him' in the end for clout. I've been called names, I’ve been called a liar, a manipulator. I've been stalked, falsely accused of either stalking or feigning evidence, been sent death threats, everything.
But this isn’t the first time things like this have happened to me in this community. Of course before this it was over less, but still. After years of having to deal with abuse in many forms that never got dealt with properly I've stopped feeling sorry for the people that never did anything to stop it. Hell, sometimes they took part in it. For years now it has felt like people had it out for me for some reason. I still don't know why they did, but I’ll tell you about some situations now to shed light on why I turned out this way. It of course doesn’t fully justify my actions, but it does explain my feelings and reasoning.

From 2018 to 2020, I was groomed at ages 15 through 17 by someone from the DA community, but they were never brought to justice as he seemingly left on his own. In 2022 I wrote an anonymous thread about it, which can be found here. When my friend posted the thread to the discord it got deleted and Will himself called it "drama that tarnished the brand" as also seen in Other noteworthy things.

When I approached Will about this in dms he seemed understanding but still didn't announce anything to the community. I already thought this was very dangerous as it just lets groomers do their thing, now I also think it might be a case of offenders protecting other offenders, subconscious or not.

Hey, I didnt want to do this publicly cuz I don't want people to know the whole twitter thing is about me, but yeah, it's about me.
I get that you don't want this affecting your image and the image of the team and server, but this is bigger than that. You really hurt my feelings with what you said, I know you probably didn't intend to hurt anyone, but to me it came off like you care more about your image than about victims. My intentions were never attention or love, I wanted to stay anonymous as much as I could to avoid that. I just wanted to warn people of this individual.
I get why the link was deleted, but I feel like you went too far putting that whole rant there, but maybe I'm seeing that wrong.
I'm not upset, just disappointed really, but I wanna hear you out too.
Will DAOnline Ryan 09/11/2022 13:44
I just think there are better ways than what has been going on.
Way better than every single day pulling up some rando when all they did was say a mean thing and a very personal thing. Bringing our name into it, our community as a whole into it is not a direction that'll work
Whatever problems there are, I would
Will DAOnline Ryan
Whatever problems there are, I would appreciate my name and my image not being brought into the equation. People can expose all they want, but involving my brand in this when in actuality it involves none of us, I don't think is okay to do. (edited)
When it comes to major things like pedophilia, and whatever is excusable for an expose, that CAN be done without using a brand name and community title.
I just don't see what good it does to anybody when the community space has to get involved. We're all supposed to feel safer individually, so hearing they walk among us isn't gonna keep anybody calm, and has indeed resulted in our community falling dramatically in volume. More than is necessary, more than is needed.
Again, I'm quite happy to be rid of the most dangerous people on the planet, but I can absolutely take someone down without involving an entire community in the picture.
PS: Whatever you think you are at fault with, I haven't the slightest clue. This was aimed more at people like SingingGuy and their crew, who lately have been going after several people for the most quiet and personal of problems, involving our name.

Will DAOnline Ryan 09/11/2022 14:16
Hope you were able to get the situation off your chest as well, 2 years holding onto t you've got my sympathies.

In 2021 I was called out for being friends with someone who was openly hated by the community for criticising Will and the channel, mostly about shipping prices for non-US orders and about the lack of European convention appearances, and for generally not being "nice enough". I was told to stop being friends with them and that I wasn't doing anything to stop them, that we weren't empathic, and that they basically deserved to get dogpiled all the time. The hate they got went as far as death threats, saying that she deserved to be depressed or that her depression wasn't real and that they aren't a victim. They had already been banned from the server when this conversation happened. In this conversation most of the mod team, Will himself and several people in the server who I considered to be friends seemed to have turned on me and made it seem like I was responsible for my friend’s actions. And though their actions (i.e. playing the victim, pulling the suicide card) were very unhealthy and problematic, it is important to know that Will has a very long history of similar behavior while being 12 years older than her. This isn’t the only time something like this has happened. The conversation below isn’t the full one as it is far too long to be included here, but you can see my point.

InuTrash 05/09/2021 9:53 AM

Look, my two brutally honest cents? You can be friends with whoever you want but you can't keep excusing shitty behaviour if they're being a twat in a public forum. I've seen some of these posts that are upsetting Will and from repeat offenders and it's consistently a cycle of "EW DA RELATED THING" to things being normal and rinse repeat. In early 2023, after becoming somewhat of a prominent figure in the community, I had a hate mob sent after me because I was vocal about my opinions about politics and my ideals, wanted to help enforce server rules and wanted people to not hurt Wills feelings through primarily art. They tried to get me either kicked or banned from the server through anonymous claims I couldn't do anything against. They got me kicked for about 2 days until I figured out why I got kicked and successfully appealed. A couple days after the kick someone involved with the group behind it approached me and revealed that several people hated me (and some others, but especially me) for either my popularity or for reasons still unknown to me. After they invited me to their server to take a look for myself I found that a group of 20+ people had conspired against me to get me kicked, had shared death wishes, private messages and potentially private info, and more. They never properly apologised to me and when I brought it to the attention of mods and Will, no proper action was taken. As far as I know they're still part of the community.

Note that in some screenshots it says either today or yesterday, these were taken on march 25th of 2023 when the confrontation happened.
This is the server the people involved organised this in, along with a result count of a search of my name:

I was invited to the server alongside a majority of the mod team to see what happened and to talk it out, but nothing really came of it. I confronted these people by myself because the mods were instructed not to say anything, leaving me to deal with them even though it’s their job. Apparently Will made the group apologise for their actions in a group chat I wasn’t invited to for reasons unknown to me which shows to me that they weren’t sorry for what they did, just because they were caught. I was told by one mod they would get kicked for what they did, but this eventually didn’t go through even though they had direct evidence of what happened.

Also whenever a conversation about the situation happened on the server and I got upset, I was just told to stop talking by mods instead of them dealing with the actual problem, creating a more hostile environment.

Remember the golden rule here: Treat others the way you want to be treated. Treat others kindly, and you'll more than likely get kindness back. If you do the opposite of that, you won't like the end result. Just be respectful of each other. Does it mean you'll like every single individual here? No, of course not. But you've gotta treat each other with respect and stop having a go at each other. 'Cus that's not gonna solve anything. I just want people to be civil. That's all.

We have had instances appear before, long ago though, and very rarely did this have to be an occurrence
Like VERY rarely
Lala (HR) 03/25/2023 6:40 PM
Jamey, stop.
Will 03/25/2023 6:40 PM
Case in point, we do need to start taking those rules seriously, yis?
Jamey 03/25/2023 6:40 PM
Okay sorry
Sora 03/25/2023 6:41 PM
Of course
@Jamey Dude, you're really gonna act like you don't know now? You said ...
Dutchy 03/25/2023 6:41 PM
I know, I just wanted to know if this didn't happen before we joined

I've also fallen victim to more casual forms of dogpiling, being singled out in a group, being held to higher standards than others, things like that. I've been banned from friend group servers for doing things others also did that I was never told were bad, for wanting people to be better, and more.

Because of all these things and more, the bigger things in particular, I no longer feel sorry for the team, and especially not for Will, Inu and Lala. It's not fully my fault that I snapped, that I refuse to feel actual guilt over how mean I've been. It wasn't even mean, I was trying to raise awareness to things that could do serious harm to people. it was the right thing to do. I just wish others would see it that way too. What Will did was disappointing at best and illegal at worst. And it deserves to be brought to light, not just because of how he and his community has treated me, but because his community also deserves better than this. I was wronged so many times and wanted them to have the justice I never got, it just hasn't happened yet. But I hold hope that at least for the things he has done himself we can have some sense of justice.

Recently I've been in contact with someone who is in the server in hopes they could get me in contact with the team so Will could make a statement. When they asked the team if we could talk, they declined. They first messaged one of the moderators (they're censored because they no longer wish to be associated with DAGames) who then sent them to Lala. Lala immediately declined the offer before they could explain why we wanted to talk. Even after trying to appeal to her wishes the answer remained no. These were taken on July 29th 2024 and were given to me by the person in question who asked to remain anonymous.

We arre yeah
Well, someone who made that document to talk to you guys
Who?
Jamey
I'll talk to the others Im not 100% sure on theyd see it
Alright
He asked me if you guys would be open to a group chat with them
Its a no sorry man
Lala requests any further things about Ja go to her directly
So does that mean I should contact her?
29 juli 2024
Hi Lala, said I should contact you about the situation
Lala vandaag om 17:19
Yeah I heard, Jamey wants a gc
Indeed
Lala vandaag om 17:19
Did he give any context at all? Obviously we don't wanna feed this behaviour but I suppose if it is something important it's worth knowing
What kind of context?
Lala vandaag om 17:24
Actually, honestly? I dont think I wanna know. Our answer is no. We wish no ill will upon him and hope he is having a good life in good health but do not want to speak to him. If he asks again the answer will remain no.
He wants to make an end to the situation
To leave it on good terms
Lala vandaag om 17:27
He can do so by moving on with his life. We do not trust his words. Only 6 days ago we were alerted that on the DA Snark he page he frequents that he was encouraging people to make jokes calling Will a pedophile but that 'you might get backlash from people who disagree', there is no reason to believe in the time between then and now that he wishes to be amicable. If he wants to end the situation he can simply move on and find things he actually enjoys in life to focus his time and energy on.

I'll pass on the message

It's good that you encourage that
Is it Jamey you don't want to talk to? Or is it the rest of the people as well?
A person called Freaky wants to talk as well
Idk them
Lala vandaag om 17:33
I can believe that and again we don't wish any ill will towards Jamey at all, nor anyone involved in the doc. While I can say I definitely reacted in rage when I saw they put a kids Facebook profile in the doc (which they then rectified and apologised for) since then I have wanted nothing more for them than to find a community they are comfortable and happy in and in going forward with that thrive and be their best selves. I apologise if Jamey and the others will not receive the closure he needs but if they are truthful in wanting to move forward? Then they can do so by simply moving forward with their lives and finding spaces and people they are happy with.
And Freaky is one of Jameys closest friends and worked very closely on the document too, we do not wish to engage with Freaky either.
vandaag om 17:34
I'll pass on the message
Lala vandaag om 17:34
Simply put we will not be engaging with them further and wish them the best in their lives and hope for nothing but their continued health and happiness in whatever paths they choose.
vandaag om 17:35
Alright, they're aware
Lala vandaag om 17:37
Fair. I will be honest I expect my words to show up on Twitter or Reddit or something very soon with a 'DA Cowards don't wanna talk to us this proves they're guilty' or some such twisting of the narrative but hoping I'm wrong, I haven't been on Twitter in over 10 months so wouldn't know. But yeah hoping this can be the point we can all go forward into a brighter future.
Again thanks for keeping us posted and hopefully this doesn't backfire.
vandaag om 17:38
I honestly don't think this'll be fuel to the fire, this wouldn't be proof at all
Though I do have a question about all this
Lala vandaag om 17:38
You'd be rather surprised at what has bee used as proof for hatred.
You'd be rather surprised at what has been used as proof for hatred.
And sure what's your question?
vandaag om 17:39
Will any of you make a statement regarding the accusations?
Because a lot of people are aware
But it's all kinda behind the scenes
Lala vandaag om 17:43
I am not in a legal position to be able to answer that question. I do not represent DAGames as a brand and therefore can't make any statements regarding this situation. And any personal statement I would make on the situation would be taken as representative of the entire company, brand and Will as a person which I will not be doing as I do not wish for my words to be used in any regard for representing the company or the people therein.
So in short I cannot say if there will be a statement or not.
NIEUWE BERICHTEN
Lala vandaag om 17:43
Apologies if that's not what you, Jamey or Freaky were hoping for.

This, among other reasons, is why this second document exists. There won't be a statement from the team, ever. They don't want to talk to us in any capacity. This isn't about me getting closure, but about making things right when it comes to sharing the truth. Will isn't given a chance to come clean and take accountability by his own team. Maybe after this he might.
I'm so lucky to have a group of friends that still supports me, that believe me and hold the same standards I do that I'm still here and that I'm still sane. Not everyone is that lucky or that strong. I've doubted myself a lot through this process, hell even since before the creation of the original document. But I know all these things are true. And you should know about them as well.

I hope any of this makes sense, or that it at least explains why I am this way and why I had any part in this.Thanks for reading

Freaky's story
We intended to also have a part where Freaky tells her side of the story, but she's had super unstable internet for well over a year now so she couldn't add it. This was also the case when the original doc was made, meaning it was primarily Pixel and Jamey who made it. Freaky didn't have much influence at all, and we feel Pixel took advantage of that to some degree, but that's speculation. Freaky has also been declined and blocked when asked if people wanted to talk to her instead of me. We offered this alternative because Jamey has a much harder time leaving his emotions out of this, because she was much less of a prominent figure in the community and because we suspect people have a vendetta specifically against me like Jamey stated in his part. It's a shame the team doesn't want to talk, mostly because of the position they put themselves in this way, but also somewhat because it doesn’t give us any sense of closure or explanation. We genuinely do believe the community itself deserves a statement first and foremost, but they’re not gonna get it sadly.

About Pixelkitty

> IMPORTANT NOTE: there has been an update to this which changes a lot of things on october 19th:
> Pixelkitty posted a very important statement regarding the mods abusing their power to sweep everything under the rug. You can read it here. This update makes a lot of information in this section outdated, but we will keep it in.

There isn’t much to be said when it comes to Pixelkitty’s actions regarding the first doc beyond what has already been said. Jamey has already written a thread about them when their “apology" came out. You can read it here. The reason we put apology in quotation marks is because they were pressured into posting it by Lala and were even told what to say because she told us that if they didn't, Lala would reveal our identities. That’s not an apology, but a means set up by the team to void Will of any guilt.

Pixel(needs an exorcisim) 21/09/2023 21:18
i'm gonna lose everything
this was fucking stupid
Jamey 21/09/2023 21:18
what do you mean?
Pixel(needs an exorcisim) 21/09/2023 21:18
if it comes out , we're done and it has too, because it spiralled this badly its gonna at some point
Jamey 21/09/2023 21:20
taht'd be so fucking stupid
Pixel(needs an exorcisim) 21/09/2023 21:20
but it is...
lala and chloe are talking to me abt confessing publicly Jamey 21/09/2023 21:20
really?
Pixel(needs an exorcisim) 21/09/2023 21:20
yeah
Jamey 21/09/2023 21:21
thats like teh only thing they can do thats so fucking dumb
Pixel(needs an exorcisim) 21/09/2023 21:21
"Yep, I've done what I can giving the 'friend of Will' context but a lot of people are believing its just cope. We think its hit a point where someone who actively worked on the doc coming forward and saying "Yep these people took things out of context and spun a narrative to try and take Will down" will help mitigate. I know it's scary dude but this is starting to spiral."
Jamey 21/09/2023 21:22
i dont even know what theyre trying to say sorry
Pixel(needs an exorcisim) 21/09/2023 21:23
its spiralling so bad, someone who workd on the doc needs to say it was cherry picked and stuff
Jamey 21/09/2023 21:23
like what will us saying that we did it change
we can reactivate the account and do that, that should be enough
Pixel(needs an exorcisim) 21/09/2023 21:23
the ooc account?
Jamey 21/09/2023 21:23
yeah
people arent gonna see ours
Pixel(needs an exorcisim) 21/09/2023 21:24
they have me in a group chat rn
if i say you're willing to at least do that Jamey 21/09/2023 21:24
thats so mean

As far as we know people have taken their apology as gospel, saying that it means everything is fake. Pixel didn’t even say that, just that we picked what to show and what not to share. That part is true because we originally had a whole lot more screenshots that weren’t needed whatsoever (i.e. Will getting vaguely upset about even more jokes, Will talking about his suicide attempts, Will saying vaguely homophobic things, etc). The original document has a lot of unnecessary things to begin with, if we didn’t pick things out it would’ve been even worse. We didn’t purposefully crop or edit screenshots to incriminate Will as much as people want to think we did. Yes, certain screenshots containing loli aren’t findable anymore, but that’s because those messages were deleted after the doc came out (as seen in NSFW/Loli), not because they were never real to begin with. We wish none of this was real too, but it is, and it needs to be brought to light.

About the future

We intend on updating this document as more information comes out, that way everyone can access the facts right as they come out. We also fully intend on sharing this document with anyone connected to Will or DAGames. We know that comes off as intrusive, but we genuinely think this is crucial information that people connected to him deserve to know. What they do with it is up to them if they even see it at all.

We won't stop sharing this document until Will or DAGames has made a public statement, feel free to share it too.

Thanks for reading

- Jamey & Freaky

Updates

Any updates will appear here as they come out.

October 18th: Several people have approached us in regards to censoring, we're working on making this happen for people who have either distanced themselves or who did nothing wrong. Current mods, friends and masters will not be censored.

October 19th: PixelKitty, who worked on the previous version, posted a very important statement regarding the mods abusing their power to sweep everything under the rug. You can read it here.
